

MEMORANDUM FOR [redacted], O/DDA

STAT FYI as per your conversation with [redacted] on the 8 May ceremony.

HIC has been working with representatives from at least five
DA components : Security, Printing, Motor Pool Mail & Courier, and OIT. Also STAT [redacted] of the Fine Arts Commission has provided her usual, fine support.
We could not put on this exhibit, nor any other, without DA support.

MEMORANDUM FOR:

Executive Officer, Office of Information Resources

FROM:

Curator, Historical Intelligence Collection

SUBJECT:

Constitution Exhibit Ceremony on Monday, 8 May 1989

REFERENCE:

D/OIR Friday Meeting with DDI and A/DDI

On Monday, 8 May 1989 three representatives from Saint John's Masonic Lodge, New York City, will deliver the Bible used by Presidents Washington and Bush at their inaugurations to Headquarters for installation in the Agency's display honoring the bicentennial of the Constitution and Bill of Rights. These men will be greeted in the Fine Arts Exhibit Hall ( 1 D corridor) by the DCI at 1100. As part of the ceremony, the DCI will present the men with a miniature of the Bicentennial Bible signed by President Bush.

At the conclusion of the ceremony, the guests will tour the remainder of the exhibit. At 1200 they will have lunch in the Executive Dining Room as guests of D/OIR. They are scheduled to depart Headquarters at 1330 by Agency vehicle for their 1500 train to New York.
